I was playing for his heart all the time, and every time he led out with his left I tried my hardest to land in that same spot again, under the heart. Constant pounding on any one spot is the most weakening form of attack, and his flesh on that spot for a place may be six inones square was cut and bruised by the thirtieth round.

I had taken many a hard pumch and along before the fortieth round he began to land on my stomach. They had been giving me tea with whiskey it as a strengthener, and there was too much whiskey. In the fortieth round I was vomiting after I had come back to my corner, and kilrain wanted to call it a draw.

"I'll give you all the draw you want in a little while," I yelled back at him. And we went on with the fight.

I came back strong in a round or two and began to press him hard. He got so he would drop as soon as my hand landed on him and end the round. That went on for a dozen rounds or more, and I was still landing on that one spot under the heart. Pretty soon the flesh and skin were pounded loose from the ribs, and that part that I had been pounding was hanging like a big tumor.
